NEW GERMANYPEOPLE OF REICH
GET CHANCE TO RISE AGAIN

BY TOM REEDY

Stuttgart, Sept. 6 (AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes, bluntly warning against making Germany a "pawn or partner" in a military power struggle between the east and west, laid before the German people today an American proposal for speedy establishment of a democratic provisional government to unify the defeated nation.

In a forthright statement of U. S. policy, Byrnes rejected any idea that Germany's eastern borders were permanently fixed on the Oder river, and said France was entitled to the Saar but not to the Ruhr and the Rhineland.

Byrnes traveled to this seat of local German government in the U. S. zone in the elaborate private train once used by Adolf Hitler. With him were Senators Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and Tom Connally (D-Tex.). Hundreds of crack U. S. soldiers, constabulary, with tanks and armored cars lined the streets to the old state opera house, where 2,000 persons listened to Byrnes' address delivered from the flower-decked stage.

No Shirkers By U. S.

Byrnes declared the United States wanted neither a hard nor soft peace for Germany, offered the Germans the chance to rise again as a nation through hard work and frugality, and said the United States would not "shirk our duty" in maintaining occupation forces as long as needed.

Byrnes deleted from his original text a reference to a "United States of Germany" in speaking of a national council which should draft a German federal constitution.

Before an audience that included German leaders, American and British occupation officers, French and British representatives and three Russian newspapermen but no official Soviet representative, Byrnes made these principal points:

1. The United States wants only establishment of a provisional government for Germany, not hand-picked by other governments and charged with drafting a federal constitution to be submitted to the German people for ratification.

In some aspects the speech was a reply to the July 10 statement of Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, who called for a central German regime but said a federal government or any dismemberment of Germany should be projected only after a later plebiscite showed the people's sentiment.

2. The United States will support revision of Germany's eastern borders in Poland's favor but "the extent of the area to be ceded must be determined when the final settlement is agreed upon."

3. France should not be denied the Saar "but so far as the United States is aware the people of the Ruhr and the Rhineland desire to remain united with the rest of Germany. And the United States will not oppose their desire."

4. The Allies should make clear to the Germans immediately the essential terms of the peace settlement they expect the Germans to accept, and observe.

5. The United States will continue to work for complete economic unification of Germany, with zonal barriers "completely obliterated so far as the economic life and activity in Germany are concerned."

City Fathers Quit
For Safety After
Athens, Tenn., Scrap

Athens, Tenn., Sept. 6 (AP)—The mayor and city aldermen of this east Tennessee town, which was taken over by a group of ex-servicemen after an all-night gun battle a few weeks ago, resigned today saying they did so for the safety of themselves and their families.

The mayor said the resignations were addressed "to whom it may concern" and filed with the city recorder, W. Moses. The latter was asked by the mayor and aldermen not to resign but to carry on as head of the police and fire departments.

Mayor Paul Walker said the situation that prompted the resignations is "too deep for me. I confess that I don't know what it is all about. We went through an election (the gun battle) which cleaned up evils which should have been cleaned up."

"We thought the situation would straighten itself out, but it hasn't. It has become worse."

The mayor added that "We are willing to try anything to shock the people into their senses. Our resignation will require an election immediately and folks won't have a chance to form parties. We want people to come out and say what they want."

At the county jail, Deputy Sheriff Otto Kennedy said "There are no disturbances and the citizens seem to be taking the resignations quietly."

Walker was asked to resign by the American Legion and VFW posts of McMinn county immediately after the election gun battle.

At that time he said "I will not resign under pressure."

Action by the mayor and the aldermen came immediately after two shots had been fired into the home of City Alderman Hugh Riggs before daylight yesterday.

Sheriff Knox Henry, the ex-GI candidate elected as a result of the revolt in which the county jail was stormed, said after an investigation that he had few clues "to go on."

Mayor Walker described the shooting at the home of Riggs as the "worst yet. Most of the board members have received threats, mostly anonymous telephone calls and anonymous letters, but it is pretty bad when a gun is emptied into the house in which your family is asleep."

Mayor Walker said, however, the "situation is out of the hands of the veterans. In fact, they asked us not to resign, but we have to do something."

He painted a picture of nocturnal terror for the aldermen and their families, saying "Cars cruise around here at night with people firing shots and making phone calls."

INLAND SETTLES
WITH STRIKERS

New Contract Signed By Lakes Carrier And Maritime Union

Detroit, Sept. 6 (AP)—The National Maritime Union today announced the signing of a contract with the Texas Oil Co., which operates two tankers on the Great Lakes, reducing to three the number of carrier companies holding out against the NMU's demands for a shorter work week for Great Lakes seamen.

A NMU spokesman said at strike headquarters here said the contract with Texas Oil was negotiated in New York by Jack Lawrence, NMU vice president.

Earlier, a contract was announced with Inland Steel in Chicago, affecting 137 seamen on four inland carriers.

The two new contracts brings the number of companies signing with NMU to 14. They operate 43 ships. The three companies still unsigned have 12 vessels.

Terms of the contracts are similar to those previously negotiated. They call for a 40-hour week in port at the beginning and end of each navigation season, 44 hours in port thereafter and 48 hours on the water. The previous work week was 56 hours.

The NMU spokesman said a meeting is scheduled tomorrow with Nicholson Transit Co. here, operator of 10 of the 12 vessels still out.

POSTPONED U. N.
SESSION URGEDSoviets Want General
Assembly Held Up
Until Nov. 11

BY A. I. GOLDBERG
Paris, Sept. 6 (AP)—The foreign ministers' council decided today to withhold action on a Soviet proposal to postpone until November 11 the general assembly of the United Nations, pending the return of U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes from his trip into Germany, a French source said tonight.

This development occurred after the 21-nation European peace conference heard demands from Russia and Yugoslavia that Greece give Bulgaria Western Thrace and a corridor to the Aegean Sea, and Yugoslavia hinted Macedonia should be incorporated into the Yugoslav republic.

The French informant said that the Soviet proposal to postpone the U. N. meeting, scheduled to be held in New York on September 23, was supported by France and China and conditionally by Britain. Soviet Minister V. M. Molotov urged the delay to avoid having two major conferences, the peace session and general assembly—underway at the same time.

Plane Lost After Leaving Detroit On
Trip To Milwaukee

Chicago, Sept. 6 (AP)—A civil aeronautics administration representative here said that an "alert notice" had been received that a two-engine Cessna plane which left Detroit this afternoon for Milwaukee was missing.

Last report about the plane, the CAA said, was received from the CAA radio station at the Jackson, Mich., airport. The plane was reported 15 miles northeast of Jackson at 3:40 p. m. (EST) and "trying to make it to Chicago."

The CAA spokesman said a check of airports in the Chicago area showed no trace of the plane, which bore the number NC61812. The name of the owner or number of passengers was not available here. A Cessna can carry from six to eight persons.

The Chicago representative said that "by this time the plane must be out of gas and either made an emergency landing somewhere or is in Lake Michigan."

Rough Rice Ceiling
Increase Ordered

Washington, Sept. 6 (AP)—Acting Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan directed the OPA tonight to increase ceiling prices on rough rice $1 a barrel of 162 pounds with "appropriate adjustments" in cleaned rice ceilings.

Present ceilings range from $5.60 to $7.30 according to the kind of rice.

Acting under authority of the new price control law, Brannan held that existing ceilings are "impeding the necessary production of rice," OPA Administrator Paul Porter is required by the law to establish the suggested price ceilings within ten days after receiving the agriculture department's formal recommendation.

GAS REVENUE GAINS

Lansing, Sept. 6 (AP)—August gasoline tax returns reached a record $3,756,571 but total gas tax revenues from the first eight months of the year were $22,492,309, a decrease of $616,299 over the same period in 1941, the state highway department reported today.

PRICE LEVELS
REVAMPED ON
MEAT BY OPALUXURY CUTS UP;
CHEAPER GRADES
REDUCED

BY STERLING F. GREEN
Washington, Sept. 6 (AP)—OPA today ordered new butcher shop ceilings for meats into effect next Tuesday, jumping some of the best cuts as much as ten cents a pound above June 30 prices and loin lamb chops 16 cents.

Pork increases generally were smaller, and prices were rolled all the way back to the old ceiling level for all veal, several important pork cuts, and the cheaper grades of beef.

This followed OPA's policy of putting the bulk of the increase on the "luxury" cuts while holding tighter ceilings on meats usually found on the tables of low-income families.

Supply To Suffer

Sausage, ham, pork shoulders, pigs knuckles, and pigs feet were squeezed down to June 30 prices. So were the choice and good grades of beef short ribs and stew meat, and virtually all the "B" and "C" grades of beef.

The average increase, therefore, was three and three-quarter cents a pound. This represents a sizeable rollback from the uncontrolled prices which have prevailed since meat ceilings were knocked out by Congress on July 1.

So great is the rollback, in fact, that meat industry leaders have predicted a new meat famine. The price decontrol board, when it ordered meat back under ceilings recently, said that control-free prices had soared 30 to 80 per cent. The board commented that the price rise brought a lot of meat to market but put an "unreasonable" strain on living costs.

Lard Up Monday

The new prices are pegged to livestock ceilings recommended by the department of agriculture. These, effective last Sunday, scotched OPA plans to restore retail prices near the June 30 ceiling tags.

Because agriculture's intervention threw OPA's time schedule out of gear, the effective date at 1,000 retail meat counters over the country was changed to Tuesday, instead of Monday as planned. OPA said it could not distribute newly printed price lists any sooner.

The Monday date is retained, however, for canned meat, lard and shortening. Lard ceilings will average five and one-half cents a pound higher than June 30.

The price hikes apply to all choice and good (AA and A) grades of beef except short ribs and stew meats.

Poolroom Gambling
Charge Costs $1,000

Ann Arbor, Sept. 6 (AP)—Angelo Lazaris, former poolroom proprietor, today pleaded guilty to a charge of "maintaining a game of chance" and was sentenced to pay a $1,000 fine or serve two years in Southern Michigan prison.

The charge was added to a six count indictment by special grand jury prosecutor William D. Bruster and a motion to dismiss six other counts of gambling conspiracy was taken under advisement by Circuit Judge James R. Breakey, Jr.

Lazaris was one of 23 persons indicted by Judge Breakey in his one man grand jury investigation of gambling in Washtenaw county. Last July he was cited for contempt but later turned state's witness in the investigation.

Five Dogs Attack
Woman On Errand

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 6 (AP)—Mrs. Ora Hansell, 74, enroute to a neighbor's home to deliver a telephone message when attacked by a pack of five dogs at nearby Cuba yesterday, remains in a critical condition in a Memphis hospital.

Four of the five dogs belonged to the neighbor to whom the message was being delivered. Dr. L. C. Johnson, who found the elderly woman lying in a clump of weeds, said she was bitten "from the head to the feet" and that the clothing had been stripped from her body.

The animals are in the humane shelter for observation.

WINS BET ON CORN

Sullivan, Ind., Sept. 6 (AP)—John A. Wilson, 82, has won his bet that he could raise a crop of corn this year, tending it himself. He used a forty-year-old plow and a fifty-year-old cultivator in tending the seven-acre crop. He says it is the best corn he ever raised—"and the last."

Great Maritime
Industry Tied Up
Tight By Strike

(By The Associated Press)

America's mighty maritime industry was locked up tight last night (Friday) behind a chain of AFL picket lines which kept a half million men away from work.

Officers of the Seafarers International Union and the Sailors Union of the Pacific claimed that more than 2,500 ships lay in Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific ports without crews.

They reiterated their determination to stay on strike until the Wage Stabilization Board rescinds a ruling which pared down to $17.50 a month an employer-approved pay hike of $22.50 on the west coast and $27.50 in the east.

The present pay scale is $145 a month.

A spokesman for the U. S. Maritime Commission, whose New York offices were being picketed, too—called it the costliest strike in the history of American shipping.

The Seafarers International Union (AFL) said the strike would be extended tomorrow afternoon to all New York harbor tugboats manned by AFL crews, halting all harbor activity except for a few railway barge tugs.

Since the beginning of the strike, tugboats have towed barges carrying foodstuffs and other commodities for the metropolitan area but have refused to aid ocean-going ships to enter and leave the harbor. The number of men and tugs to be affected by the latest stoppage could not be learned immediately. The tugboats are to cease operation by 4 p. m. (EDT) tomorrow.

Transocean passenger traffic was suspended. Import and export of raw materials vital to the nation's mills and factories were halted.

More than 250,000 tons of relief cargo for Europe and Asia were tied up in 125 UNRRA ships immobilized by the walkout.

An Army troopship due to sail for Germany and three Army cargo vessels were stalled at Staten Island, N. Y. Unloading of an incoming troopship, the Wilson victory, with the bodies of 56 soldiers who died in Europe, was delayed.

Ten hours after the ship docked a crew of longshoremen came aboard to remove the caskets, gaining special permission to pass through picket lines for that purpose only.

In Washington the war department said the strike virtually had paralyzed shipment of American troops and supplies to Germany and Japan. Overseas theaters reported a stockpile which would last about six weeks.

Adding to the embargo of most rail shipments to seaports, the Railway Express Agency ordered its agents to refuse shipments "directed to steamship companies, docks and export brokers in New York, Boston and New Jersey because of the strike."

Heirens, who attributed his crimes to an unnatural sex urge to commit burglaries, must serve a minimum of 61 years before becoming eligible to apply for parole. He was sentenced to three consecutive life terms for murder plus a consecutive one year to life term for the various lesser crimes.

Communism Scored
By Letter Carriers
In Detroit Session

Detroit, Sept. 6 (AP)—The National Association of Letter Carriers (AFL) scored Communism in a resolution marking the close of the annual convention today.

The move urged "the dismissal from the postal service of any known member of the Communist party or anyone who is in sympathy with any subversive movement xxx detrimental to our democratic form of government."

The delegates voted to seek enactment of a similar resolution at the AFL convention in Chicago Oct. 7.

William C. Doherty of Cincinnati was re-elected to his third term as president of the association in the earlier election of officers.

Former Doughfoot
New VFW Chieftain

Boston, Sept. 6 (AP)—Louis E. Starr of Portland, Ore., a World War I infantryman, won by acclamation today national command of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in an election which bypassed World War 2 veterans for the three top posts.

Named to serve with Starr in the other two major national offices were two more soldiers of 1918, Ray H. Brannaman of Denver, Colo., senior vice-commander, and Lyall T. Beggs of Madison, Wis., junior vice-commander.

SENTENCED TO DIE

Los Angeles, Sept. 6 (AP)—Frederick R. Hills, 42, wealthy Van Nuys nurseryman convicted of killing his wife and burying her in a squash patch last December, today was sentenced to die in San Quentin's gas chamber.

PACKERS AND BUTCHERS TO CLOSE SHOPSPRODUCERS REFUSE TO SELL AT NEW CEILINGS

(By The Associated Press)
A week of the lowest livestock receipts on record left pork and beef eaters throughout the nation today with glum prospects of obtaining anything like the supplies they desire after next week.

Some meat men observed there "would not even be lunch meats" available in retail channels. Packing plants began laying off workers or closing down entirely this week. It was expected many butcher shops might do likewise in weeks to come for lack of anything to sell.

Price Raise Granted
Traders said the slim meat animal receipts resulted either because producers had cleaned out their supply at the high prices prevailing during the lapse of OPA ceilings in July and August, or else they were refusing to market at the new ceiling levels.

The sharp drop in livestock trading came even as the Office of Price Administration announced in Washington new retail ceilings for most meats would be increased about 34 cents a pound above the June 30 ceilings, yet below current consumer prices.

The ceilings are to go into effect Tuesday.

Reports of an impending critical scarcity of meat came from major livestock terminals throughout the corn belt feeding area and the western range. The decline in livestock numbers set in shortly after they had reached the highest on record Aug. 26. Starting this week they reached the lowest on record.

Employes Laid Off
In Omaha, Neb., branch plants of the four largest packers laid off an estimated 3,000 workers during the week. Louis Kavan, secretary of the Omaha Meat Dealers Association, said "we ate our October meat in July," and predicted a severe meat shortage.

Denver, Colo., packers reported laying off 400 employees with further layoffs expected soon.

Five large independent packers in the St. Louis, Mo., area and several small slaughterers ceased operations because of the livestock shortage.

Harold Lorton of the Missouri-Illinois Small Slaughterers' Association, representing 33 small operators in the area, reported many of them had shut down and predicted all would be closed within a few days.

At Chicago, one of the principal packing centers of the nation, major packing companies began laying off employees Wednesday and said they could not estimate when the exodus would end. Lack of purchasable livestock supplies was given as the reason for slowing down operations.

Receipts of hogs at Chicago's vast Union stockyards reached their lowest point today, 400 head on sale, after dropping to 500 on Thursday and 1,200 on Wednesday.

WAR MEMORIAL MEET PLANNED

Continue Discussions At Bonifas Auditorium September 23

Another meeting to discuss plans for the establishment of a war memorial in Escanaba will be held in Escanaba on Monday, Sept. 23, and an effort will be made to secure an outside speaker, George Grenholm, city recreation director, announced yesterday.

Notices have been mailed to all local organizations urging them to send delegates to the meeting on Sept. 23, which will be held in the Bonifas auditorium at 8:00 p. m.

Two previous meetings were held but no decision was reached toward the establishment of a living war memorial in Escanaba.

Tax Boost Favored To Raise Wages, End Pontiac Strike

Pontiac, Mich., Sept. 6 (P)—The city commission was on record with a move to raise city taxes today, the tenth day of the city employee strike.

The commission voted last night to submit a proposal to withdraw from the 15 mill tax limitation to city voters in November. The proposal would substitute a 10 mill restriction on city taxes for the present 6.5 mills it receives after the county and schools share the 15 mills.

Local 100, United Public Workers called the strike in a demand for a 10-cent hourly wage increase. The city administration said the raise was impossible under the present tax structure.

Essential city services have been maintained, but garbage collection, burials in two city-owned cemeteries, parking meter operations, and cafeteria service in Pontiac General hospital have been suspended.

Coal Kept Moving Despite CIO Strike

Cleveland, Sept. 6 (P)—Despite the CIO maritime strike, more bituminous coal was moved on the Great Lakes in August than any previous month, the Ore and Coal Exchange reported today.

The Exchange said 8,379,468 net tons were loaded, compared with 7,915,913 in October, 1941, the previous high month.

Last August 6,536,270 tons were loaded at all lake docks.

Nagasaki Air Crash Kills 3 Americans

Tokyo, Saturday, Sept. 7, (P)—Crash of an army B-29 Superfortress off Nagasaki Friday with the loss of three lives was reported today by headquarters of the Pacific air command at Tokyo.

Ten other crewmen were pulled out of the water by an air-sea emergency rescue team which hurried from Fukuoka after a call from Nagasaki.

MORE POLIO CASES

Lansing, Sept. 6, (P)—The state health department today received reports of 27 new cases of polio, seven of them in Detroit. The city case load is now 188 and the state total is 482 cases.

New Mexico contains seven national forests, with a total area of 8,500,000 acres.

PRICE LEVELS REVAMPED ON MEAT BY OPA

They average about eight cents a pound for the cuts increased, about three cents a pound for all beef sold to consumers.

Ninety-five per cent of all lamb and mutton cuts share in the increase, the average rise being 10 cents a pound for lamb and four cents mutton.

Steaks Take Jump

For pork, the average climb is only four cents a pound, because of the large number of items rolled back to June 30. On the items increased, the average rise is seven to eight cents.

OPA gave some price examples, showing that choice porterhouse steak goes from 56 cents on June 30 to 65 cents in New York and San Francisco, from 54 to 63 cents in Chicago. Round steak goes from 45 to 55 cents in New York, from 46 to 56 cents in San Francisco and from 44 to 54 in Chicago. Rib roast (seven-inch) ceilings go up nine cents to a new price of 48 cents in New York and San Francisco and 46 cents in Chicago.

Lamb loin chops, which sold for 64 cents in New York and San Francisco, now will cost 80 cents and 70 cents respectively. In Chicago the new ceiling is 77 cents, 15 cents above June 30.

The new ceiling on lamb leg roast is 55 cents in New York and San Francisco, 53 cents in Chicago. Sliced bacon, smoked and de-iced, is uniformly four cents higher than on June 30, loin center-cut pork chops are eight cents higher across the country, and Canadian bacon is 15 cents a pound higher across the board, for a new ceiling of 82 cents in New York, 84 cents in San Francisco and 81 cents in Chicago.

Enforcement Staff Doubled

Spare ribs are five cents a pound higher, bringing new ceilings to 30 cents in New York, 31 cents in San Francisco and 28 cents in Chicago.

The samples are for independent stores doing less than $250,000 business a year. New York prices generally are typical of the east-central United States, Chicago of the middle west, and San Francisco of the far west, OPA said.

OPA announced only a few of the new ceilings here. Information on the prices applying in each region and in each type of store should be obtained from OPA district offices and local price control boards, the agency said.

OPA has served notice that it is doubling its enforcement staff to see that the new ceilings are not scuttled by widespread black market operations.

OPA Administrator Paul Porter has predicted that some falling-off in the meat supply will coincide with the restoration of ceilings but declared that will result mainly from "perfectly natural reasons," such as the traditional low marketing of hogs in September and the fact that beef feeding lots have been depleted during the hiatus in price control.

Cuban Leader's Son Shot In Automobile

Havana, Sept. 6 (P)—Luis Martinez Saenz, 16, son of Dr. Joaquin Martinez Saenz, leader of the ABC party and minister without portfolio in President Grau's cabinet, was shot to death tonight by unidentified persons.

According to police reports, Young Martinez was travelling in his father's official car on which the occupants of another fired.

Ferries Make 14 Round Trips Daily Until Deer Season

Lansing, Sept. 6 (P)—The state highway department announced today that its Straits of Mackinac ferries will make 14 round trips daily at hour and a half intervals between Sept. 8 and Nov. 9.

Ferries will leave Mackinac City at 1:30, 4:30, 7:30, 9, and 10:30 a. m., at noon, and at 1:30, 3, 4:30, 6, 7:30, 9, and 10:30 p. m. departures from St. Ignace are listed for 3, 6, 7:30, 9 and 10:30 a. m., noon, 1:30, 3, 4:30, 6, 7:30, 9, and 10:30 p. m. and at midnight.

From Nov. 10 through Nov. 30, service will continue without schedule until deer hunters have been accommodated. Five boats will be in operation during the hunting season.

Jewel Theft WAC Can't Get Release In Frankfurt Trial

Washington, Sept. 6 (P)—Justice Burton of the supreme court today refused to order military authorities to release WAC Capt. Kathleen Nash Durant, who is charged with taking part in the $1,500,000 Kronsberg castle jewel theft in Germany.

Lt. Col. John S. Dwinell, counsel for Mrs. Durant, appeared before Burton in his supreme court chamber to request a writ of habeas corpus.

Three representatives of the judge advocate general's office and a justice department attorney appeared in opposition.

Burton, in refusing to release Mrs. Durant, said he acted without prejudice to an application which will be considered later by the full supreme court. By this application, already filed, Mrs. Durant again seeks release on a habeas corpus writ. She contends she was discharged from the army May 30, 1946 and as a civilian was "unlawfully" taken to Frankfurt, Germany, for trial.

The U. S. secretary prefaced his statements on territorial adjustments with the declaration that "while we shall insist that Germany observe the principles of peace, good neighborliness and humanity, we do not want Germany to become the satellite of any power, or to live under a dictatorship, foreign or domestic. The American people want to see peaceful, democratic Germans remain free and independent."

Byrnes said that at the Potsdam conference specific areas which were part of Germany were assigned provisionally to Russia and Poland, "subject to the final decisions of the peace conference."

He emphasized that it was agreed at Potsdam to support at the peace settlement a Russian proposal for the "ultimate transfer to the Soviet Union of the city of Koenigsberg (capital of East Prussia) and areas adjacent to it."

At the conclusion Byrnes threw a smart salute to the audience, and raised a clenched fist as the applause continued. He left later in the day for a two-day holiday in Bavaria, and will return to Paris Sunday.

"The United States favors the early establishment of a provisional German government for Germany," Byrnes said. "It is the view of the American government that the provisional government should not be hand-picked by other governments, but should be a German national council composed of democratically responsible minister-presidents or other chief officials of the several states or provinces which have been established in each of the four zones."

The German national council should also be charged with the preparation of a draft of a federal constitution for Germany, which, among other things, should ensure the democratic character of the new Germany and human rights and fundamental freedoms of all its inhabitants.

Byrnes said that at the Potsdam conference specific areas which were part of Germany were assigned provisionally to Russia and Poland, "subject to the final decisions of the peace conference."

He emphasized that it was agreed at Potsdam to support at the peace settlement a Russian proposal for the "ultimate transfer to the Soviet Union of the city of Koenigsberg (capital of East Prussia) and areas adjacent to it."

St. Ignace Driver Is Blamed In Minor Auto Collision Here

A St. Ignace driver, Mrs. Mary Paquin, was blamed for a collision early last evening near the intersection of Seventh street and First avenue south, when she ran through the stop sign at Seventh street and struck a car driven by William Gafner, 1519 Ludington street.

Visiting Coaches To Watch Spartans

East Lansing, Sept. 6 (P)—Approximately 600 high school coaches, athletic directors and officials attending the annual Michigan High School Athletic Association rules meeting here Saturday will watch Michigan State's football candidates run through scrimmages.

Head Coach Charley Bachman is planning to turn over his afternoon practice for an intrasquad exhibition game.

At least three squad newcomers are making heavy bids to fill the place of Fullback Jack Breslin, key man on the Spartans' 1944 and 1945 team who was graduated this summer.

Frank Watters, Steve Sieradski and Hank Ferris have shown up, well in drills so far and Bachman is satisfied that they will be "adequate" to take over the full-back spot by the time the season opens.

State Vocational School Site Picked

Lansing, Sept. 6, (P)—A 960-acre site near Williamston was approved today by the state juvenile institute commission for the location of a new boys' vocational school.

The commission approval is subject to a survey by state building division engineers of the water supply and other facilities on the site to determine the suitability for the location of the school.

The Rev. Paul Czarnaske, of Hazel Park, commission chairman, said the commission was expecting to have the plans for the new school ready to present at the January session of the legislature.

The site will also have to be passed on formally by the boys' vocational school legislative committee which has tentatively approved it.

PACKERS AND BUTCHERS TO CLOSE SHOPS

closed and beef coolers in packinghouses virtually empty. One major packing company executive said, "the prospect for meat is the darkest I ever have known. I don't see how there can be any meat of consequence on retail counters after this week end."

Company executives at Kansas City said there had been a 60 per cent average payroll reduction, with the normal production payroll estimated at 8,000 workers.

Farther east the scarcity situation was worse, if anything.

Chester C. Newcomb, president of the Cleveland, Ohio, provision company, predicted, "beginning next week we'll have the greatest meat scarcity ever; the black market will flourish."

Several large packing companies at Columbus, Ohio, were laying off employees, and in Cincinnati packinghouses were putting skilled butchers to work on maintenance and repair work around the plants.

All told, twelve principal packing terminals throughout the middle west received 3,800 hogs today, a record low. This compared with 21,106 a week ago and 25,206 a year ago. For the week to date the aggregate was 26,300 hogs received, compared with 217,200 a week ago and 144,900 a year ago.

COAL OUTLOOK NOT CRITICAL

Escanaba Area Expected To Have About 90% Of 1945 Total

While the coal situation in the Upper Great Lakes area has been described as nearing a crisis unless the delivery of coal is speeded before navigation ends, coal dealers in Escanaba yesterday said they believed the supply to this area would be "adequate for this season."

The Escanaba Coal & Dock company, which already has a large quantity of coal received, expects the arrival of additional cargoes soon. There will be a shortage of some premium coals and the consumer may not get the grades to which he may be accustomed, but there may be an increase in the quantity of other premium grades received.

It was reported from the Reiss Coal company that the last coal boat unloaded at its dock Aug. 22, and that other boats are hoped to arrive this fall. There will be no increases in the quantity of coals received and in some premium grades the amount is expected to be about 80 per cent of last year's supply.

The solid fuels administration has limited the amount of coal to be delivered to 90 per cent of the 1945 total. The Northwestern Retail Coal Dealers association point out, however, that the 90 per cent applies to a year in which deliveries were restricted to 80 per cent of the totals for 1944, and that the shortage was offset last year by using carryover stock.

The dealers association has appealed to the solid fuels administration in Washington for an immediate increase in coal shipments to Upper Great Lakes ports so that a shutdown of industry, and thousands of unheated homes may be avoided by an adequate supply of fuel. Should there be an unseasonably early closing of navigation on the lakes, the situation would be highly critical, the coal dealers association predicts.

STATE LANDS GOING! GOING!—Packing court rooms at the court house in Escanaba yesterday were Menominee and Delta county residents interested in purchasing state lands which were being auctioned to the highest bidder by the conservation department. Listed descriptions of land were watched closely as they were read by C. F. Millar, Lansing, who conducted the sale. Some lots went for as low as $10 and the highest price paid for any property was $1,600 for 25 acres in Menominee county.

Expect State Land Sales In U. P. To Hit $100,000

People have money, they want to invest in land, and they look for bargains at state auctions of tax reverted lands—which makes land sales such as that held in Escanaba court house yesterday a place where $25,181 was spent in about three hours.

"Before we get through with our scheduled land sales in the Upper Peninsula I believe the total will be more than $100,000, which was the amount of the purchases made in sales below the Straits," said C. F. Millar of the conservation department lands division, who is conducting the auctions.

Over 100 Attend
In Escanaba yesterday all but a few of the state-owned properties offered for sale were listed as "no bids". The sale covered 2,045 acres and 119 lots in Delta county, and 2,064 acres in Menominee county. Forty-five properties in Menominee county sold for a total of $9,690, and 98 properties in Delta county went for a total of $15,491.

More than 100 persons attended the sale and on several occasions the bidding was spirited. The Escanaba Paper company through Elmer Klassell, its representative, purchased 13 properties in Delta and 11 in Menominee for a total of $4,450 as the largest single purchaser of the day. The Sawyer-Stoll company of Escanaba purchased a few properties, and the

Illegal Sales Of Liquor Cost Iron Mountain Man $200

John Spera, 37-year-old Iron Mountain man arrested last week for illegal sale of liquor at the U. P. State Fairgrounds, yesterday pleaded guilty to selling liquor without a license and also to illegal possession of liquor and was fined $100 and costs on each count by Justice of the Peace Henry Ranguette.

Spera also was assessed a $27 federal liquor tax by a federal officer who appeared in court.

The Iron Mountain man had originally demanded a hearing which was set for next Monday but the case was moved up to yesterday at his own request.

other sales apparently were to individuals.

Only out-of-state bidder was Otto B. Brumsted of Milwaukee, who paid $715 for five 40's in Menominee county. The City of Escanaba also purchased several lots in the city, its purchases totaling $550. Albert Kipfer of Stephenson, chairman of the Menominee county board of supervisors, was involved in a bidding match for a piece of property at the southern limit of Stephenson and was successful with a bid of $1,600. Kipfer explained later that he wanted it as a possible future home site.

Big Demand For Lands
Bidding has been spirited at many of the sales held this summer both downstate and at the three in the Upper Peninsula. Millar said. At St. Ignace the sales totaled $17,000 for properties in Mackinac and Chippewa counties; at Manistique the total was $9,900 for properties in Luce and Schoolcraft counties.

Six other sales are to be held in the Upper Peninsula: Today at Marquette, Monday at L'Anse, Tuesday at Houghton, Wednesday at Ontonagon, Thursday at Crystal Falls, and Friday next week at Iron Mountain. A total of 27,755 acres and 561 lots are being offered for sale in the Upper Peninsula. Sales conducted on lands in 47 counties in Lower Michigan have brought a total of $100,000 and Millar said that total might be exceeded in sales in the Upper Peninsula's 15 counties.

In opening the sale yesterday Millar advised the prospective bidders that they would have to meet the minimum sale price established by appraisers. These minimum prices, incidentally, were considered conservative by many of the bidders, who sometimes doubled them when there was competition in bidding.

Millar said that 30-day purchase certificates are issued by the state to the successful bidder, but advised against the purchase against taking possession of the property until the 30-day period has expired. The former owner has the right to redeem his tax-reverted lands for the price of the highest bid within 30 days. Few former owners redeem, however, according to Millar.

Assisting Millar in the sales in the Upper Peninsula are D. J. McCarthy, Lansing, and Jack Virena, Munising, of the lands division.

SCRAP METAL BOARD NAMED

John B. Bush Is Again Held Of U. P. Committee

Negaunee — Because of the growing scrap metal shortage, the Upper Peninsula industrial scrap committee, dismissed after its wartime duties, has been reorganized.

John B. Bush, who headed the organization, has accepted the chairmanship again and a majority of those who served during the war have been placed on the reorganized group.

They are Bush; Fred S. Case, Sault Ste. Marie; O. N. Lang, St. Ignace; C. D. Zagelemeister, Newberry; A. J. Cayia, Manistique; C. W. Brown, Wells; Walter Corey, Munising; F. X. St. Peter, Menominee; F. A. Flodin, Iron Mountain; C. J. Stakel, Ishpeming; Victor Laing, Iron River; Endicott R. Lovell, Calumet; Walter T. Gorman, Ontonagon, and Frank J. Smith, Ramsay.

Lack of scrap, Bush said today, is one of the factors holding back production. Mills claim they have only 60 per cent of necessary supplies on hand.

"It should be made clear," Bush stated, "that the government is not buying scrap. We have just been named to expedite the movement of industrial scrap to the markets so there will be no bottleneck in this type of material."

"The industries of the Peninsula did an outstanding job during the war, sending out 40,000 tons of scrap, and I know they can be counted on again to achieve a good record."

village constable."

Clarification is sought, said Voelker, so that in event it is clearly established they do not have comparable authority. "The department can bandage up its beaten men and go down to Lansing and ask for such a statute."

Escanaba Men Are Defendants In Test Conservation Case

Marquette—Arguments in an action admittedly being pressed for the state conservation department to determine authority of its officers if they are resisted in the course of their work were taken under advisement Thursday by Judge Guy A. Miller, Detroit, presiding in Marquette county circuit court.

Motion for dismissal of a case against Robert and Joseph Coplan and Ray Dube, Escanaba, was made by Wheaton S. Strom, Escanaba, their attorney, and contested by John D. Voelker, prosecuting attorney.

"They are charged with resisting search of their automobile by conservation officers on Aug. 11 near the Big West branch of the Escanaba river north of Arnold."

They were bound over after a hearing in Gwin justice court. It was Strom's contention that conservation officers do not have the status and authority of peace officers charged with "preservation and maintenance of the peace" and search of the defendants' car was an illegal act.

Asserting that the conservation department was continuing prosecution of the case in its own right, Voelker added:

"The conservation department is also curious to know if its officers have the rights given to any

Stolen Purse Is Found In Yard On Stephenson Avenue

The purse stolen from Mrs. George Labre, 215 North 19th street, late Wednesday night by a purse snatcher in the 1600 block of Ludington street, was found yesterday by Mrs. Edward Gro-leau in the yard of her home at 222½ Stephenson avenue. The contents of the bag, excepting a small amount of cash and a U. P. State Fair check, were intact.

Police said yesterday that they had no further clues which might lead to the identity of the purse snatcher. Three suspects, arrested a short time after the theft, were released after being questioned several hours.

Tribute to Bishop

AFTER 17 years of service as a public school teacher, George E. Bishop became secretary-manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau on Oct. 1, 1921. During the past 25 years he has guided the affairs of the Bureau through alternating periods of prosperity and depression.

The Bureau experienced tough going during the 30's and even during World War II, but the boundless energy and enthusiasm possessed by George E. Bishop enabled it to come through it all a stronger and more virile organization.

It is altogether fitting, therefore, that friends of George E. Bishop, throughout the two peninsulas of Michigan, are arranging a testimonial party in his honor on Wednesday, Oct. 9. As a part of the ceremony a cairn will be dedicated in his honor at the junction of U. S. 2 and 41 at Rapid River. The day's program will be concluded with a banquet at Marquette, where leading figures in tourist industry and public life of Michigan will be in attendance.

No single individual has done more to promote the Upper Peninsula's recreational industry than George E. Bishop. That he ranks high in this field has been recognized in the past by his appointment to important offices in the Great Lakes Tourist Council, Michigan Tourist Council, Michigan Century of Progress commission, and many other regional and national organizations.

Directing an organization like the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau during the past quarter century has been a monumental task, one that required hard work, perseverance, tact and vision. Fortunately, George E. Bishop has all these qualifications.

Health Director Named

THE appointment of Dr. Melvin T. Johnson, of Fort Dodge, Ia., as director of the Delta county health department fills a vacancy that has existed for more than a year in one of the most important public service positions.

In the absence of a full time director, the work of the county health director has been assumed here by Dr. R. E. Pleune, who is the director of the Upper Peninsula office of the Michigan Department of Health. Dr. Pleune's broad duties throughout the peninsula, however, required most of his time and the appointment of a health director for Delta county has been urgent in order to attain maximum efficiency of both the Upper Peninsula health department office and the Delta county unit.

The enlargement of the local health unit to embrace both Delta and Menominee counties has been proposed by the Michigan Department of Health and the merger has already been approved by the Delta county board of supervisors. A decision on the merger was recently delayed by the Menominee county board of supervisors until its October meeting.

The proposed merger offers an opportunity for maintenance of public health service to both counties at a minimum of cost, but whether Menominee county approves the merger or not, Delta county will continue to support a public health program that provides the maximum of public health service and protection that can be attained with the funds available.

Treat Tourists Right

DURING the war, hotels in Chicago, New York and other large cities were notorious for the high prices charged and poor service given to their guests. Their alibi was that lack of help and other wartime conditions made it impossible to serve their customers as in the past.

During the summer, resorts in the northwestern region have been doing a landoffice business, and there are reports that they are taking an undue advantage of conditions. They are charging all the traffic will bear, and giving shoddy service to boot.

There are complaints of price gouging at Northern Wisconsin resorts. One tourist reports being charged $3 for an ordinary steak dinner, 75 cents a dozen for bait minnows and 35 cents a dozen for worms. Another complained he had to pay $15 a day for a guide.

Even some Upper Peninsula communities, who for years have been advertising and begging tourists to come to see them, are reported to have lost their usual hospitality. The postwar travel boom has gone to their heads, and they have assumed an air of independence and arrogance. Some tourists report being rudely treated when asking for hotel rooms, and no effort is made to find rooms for them in private homes.

Now is the time for hotels, resorts and other business establishments to go out of their way to assist tourists who come to the Upper Peninsula. Here is the opportunity to obtain the valuable advertising that comes from serving the public well. The postwar travel boom may not last forever, and it will be the communities that have treated visitors well in the past that will have them coming back each season.

Meat Hunters Busy

THE illegal killing of the Upper Peninsula's deer herd has already started in earnest, judging from the large number of arrests made by the conservation department during the past week.

Obviously, the interest in venison has been heightened because of the shortage of meat and the high prices the public must pay for it in the food markets today. This condition, however, in no way justifies the illegal slaughter of the public's deer herd. Hunting is permitted during the open season Nov. 15 to 30, inclusive, and only by those who have paid the required license fee.

One of the disheartening features of the recent wave of deer poaching was the fact that a prominent officer of a sportsmen's club was arrested and pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal hunting. Members of sportsmen's clubs should be the last to disobey the state laws governing the taking of game. Such organizations are founded, or should be, on idealistic principles, such as the promotion of good sportsmanship, the observance of game and fish laws, and the furtherance of the conservation movement.

Unfortunately, some members have the mistaken notion that sportsmen's clubs are organized merely to promote better hunting and fishing for the game hogs. Perhaps, they also think they have joined protective organizations that will pay their fines, keep them out of jail or in some way prevent their names from getting into the newspapers in the event they are arrested for game and fish law violations.

STATE BAR MAY FIGHT TAX AMENDMENT

(Marquette Mining Journal) If the recommendations of its taxation committee are acceptable, the Michigan bar association will be numbered among groups opposed to a constitutional amendment to divert sales tax revenue to local units of government. Opposition by this numerically weak but highly respected organization undoubtedly would go a long way toward convincing the public that this unwelcome proposal should be voted down.

The association's tax committee has reported that it is "almost unanimously of the opinion that any plan for apportioning and distributing state tax revenues to the local units of government is not a proper matter for incorporation in the constitution." As an alternative it recommends study to determine ways and means of using excess state monies to meet urgent requirements of local units.

This is the only logical alternative. Experience has proved that state revenue returned to local units, with no strings attached, often is wasted or spent for purposes not intended. If the state is able to show surplus after taking care of its own considerable requirements, the money should be used to assist units under some formula which takes into consideration the financial record of the local unit.

Units leading the fight for the proposed amendment are among those who have done the least to help themselves. They would rather dip into state revenues than put their fiscal affairs in order. They are seeking to advance their own selfish interests at the expense of the state as a whole, and of good government.

The Michigan Education Association, through its secretary, Dr. Phillips, originally opposed the proposed amendment. But the association's board of directors later came to the conclusion that it might gain by participating in what it is hoped will prove an abortive attempt to raid the treasury. The MEA's about face and repudiation of Dr. Phillips is little short of disgraceful.

Any resemblance between the board's action and intellectual honesty is purely coincidental. All members are fully aware that the earmarking of state monies by constitutional amendment is unsound and dangerous practice. The MEA has been traditionally opposed to it, but it appears the association is prepared to sacrifice its ideals. There is reason to hope, however, that the rank and file will not follow the advice of the board. They must know that if the MEA becomes a party to weakening the financial structure of the state, its prestige and influence in the conduct of government will take a well deserved nosedive.

FOOT—FEET

Q. My English class will be grateful for another of your easy-to-understand discussions of the correct use of foot-feet. We find nothing on it in our textbooks.—Mrs. B. D.

Answer: When the millennium arrives, perhaps we shall have textbooks that will teach us a little useful knowledge about speaking and writing our language, instead of being obsessed with the Latinized incomprehensibilities of that medieval monster called English grammar.

Meanwhile, this column will keep on trying to make the path of English usage a little less rugged for teachers, students, and all the other readers of this good newspaper.

Rule. When a measurement modifies or describes a noun (acts as an adjective), use the form -foot, thus:

- A six-foot ladder
- A four-foot wall
- A three-foot ruler
- A two-foot-wide table.

Also:

- A six-inch pipe
- A hundred-yard dash
- A two-mile race.

Otherwise, use the plural forms without the hyphen, thus:

The ladder is six feet long.

World Events Analyzed

BY BARNET NOVER

Paris—In the first meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers since the body adjourned last July after setting the stage for the present Peace Conference dealt only with relatively minor matters. On the basis of what happened at the Quai O'Orsay meeting of August 29, it would be rash to conclude that a new and more hopeful stage in Big Four relations has been reached. However, participants have described this latest meeting of Messrs. Molotov, Byrnes, Bevin and Bidault as one held in an atmosphere of calm and amity. That in itself is good news.

The fact is that during these weeks since the Foreign Ministers of Russia, the United States, Great Britain and France agreed to the draft settlements with five former enemy nations and set the stage for the present Peace Conference, relations among the Big Four have steadily deteriorated. If this dangerous trend has now been halted and perhaps reversed, the Peace Conference may finally begin to make real headway.

—RUSSIA ALWAYS SUSPICIOUS—

Certainly there can be little doubt that one of the major reasons why that conference has been bogged down and why its sessions have repeatedly revealed a mood of conflict and tension has been the growing cleavage between Russia and the Western powers. This cleavage is, of course, no recent development. However, it did not prevent the powers from agreeing, though not without prolonged and painful effort, to the principal terms of peace with Italy, Romania, Hungary, Bulgaria and Finland. That in itself was no small accomplishment. But the fact that the Big Four did succeed in overcoming obstacles which at London last September and in Paris last spring did seem insuperable was apparently not enough in itself to restore harmony among them.

Here at the Peace Conference Russia has manifested an unending suspicion regarding the good faith of the English-speaking powers in accepting arrangements regarding Italy and the other former satellites of the Reich which the United States and Great Britain hoped to negotiate agreements accepted by the Council of Foreign Ministers. The repeated statements of Messrs. Byrnes and Bevin that they had no such intention have not apparently been enough to reassure the Russians, particularly when they saw other English-speaking nations such as Australia proposing amendments to the draft treaties which went directly counter to the decisions of the Big Four.

—FEARS ILL-FOUNDED—

The conference has now lasted long enough and the votes of the English-speaking powers have been registered on enough matters to prove that this Russian fear was ill-founded. For instance, on the Australian proposal to revise the reparations system embodied in the draft settlements with Romania, the United States, Great Britain and France voted solidly with Russia and against Australia. The same solid lineup of the Big Four has occurred on all other matters involving decisions of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

At the August 29 meeting of the council renewed assurances were given to Russia on this matter and plans were made to work out a system to prevent misunderstandings regarding changes in the draft settlements which the Big Four may individually regard as desirable but which, not knowing the views of the others, they might be fearful of supporting. The deputies of the Foreign Ministers have been entrusted with the task of going through the 205 amendments and changes that have been submitted to the conference with a view to discovering to which of those 205 Great Britain nor the United States nor Great Britain nor France has any objections.

It must be remembered, however, that this agreement to support the agreements reached by the Council of Foreign Ministers at its July session applies only to votes in the Peace Conference. Mr. Byrnes has made it clear, for instance, that he will be strongly moved to support any recommendations approved by two thirds of the conference and will also give serious consideration to recommendations approved by a simple majority.

Furthermore, and this even more important, there are many important questions involving the peace settlements upon which no agreement was reached by the Big Four. Among these are the future regulation of traffic on the Danube, the economic relationship between the former enemy states in the Balkans and the Allies, and the system of government that is to be set up in the international territory of Trieste. On these questions each of the Big Four retains freedom of action.

This point, too, was reemphasized at the August 29 meeting of the council, which means that the decision of the conference as a whole may be determinative. Yet it is doubtful whether, no matter how big the majority, Russia will willingly bow to any recommendation that she considers harmful to her political or economic interests.

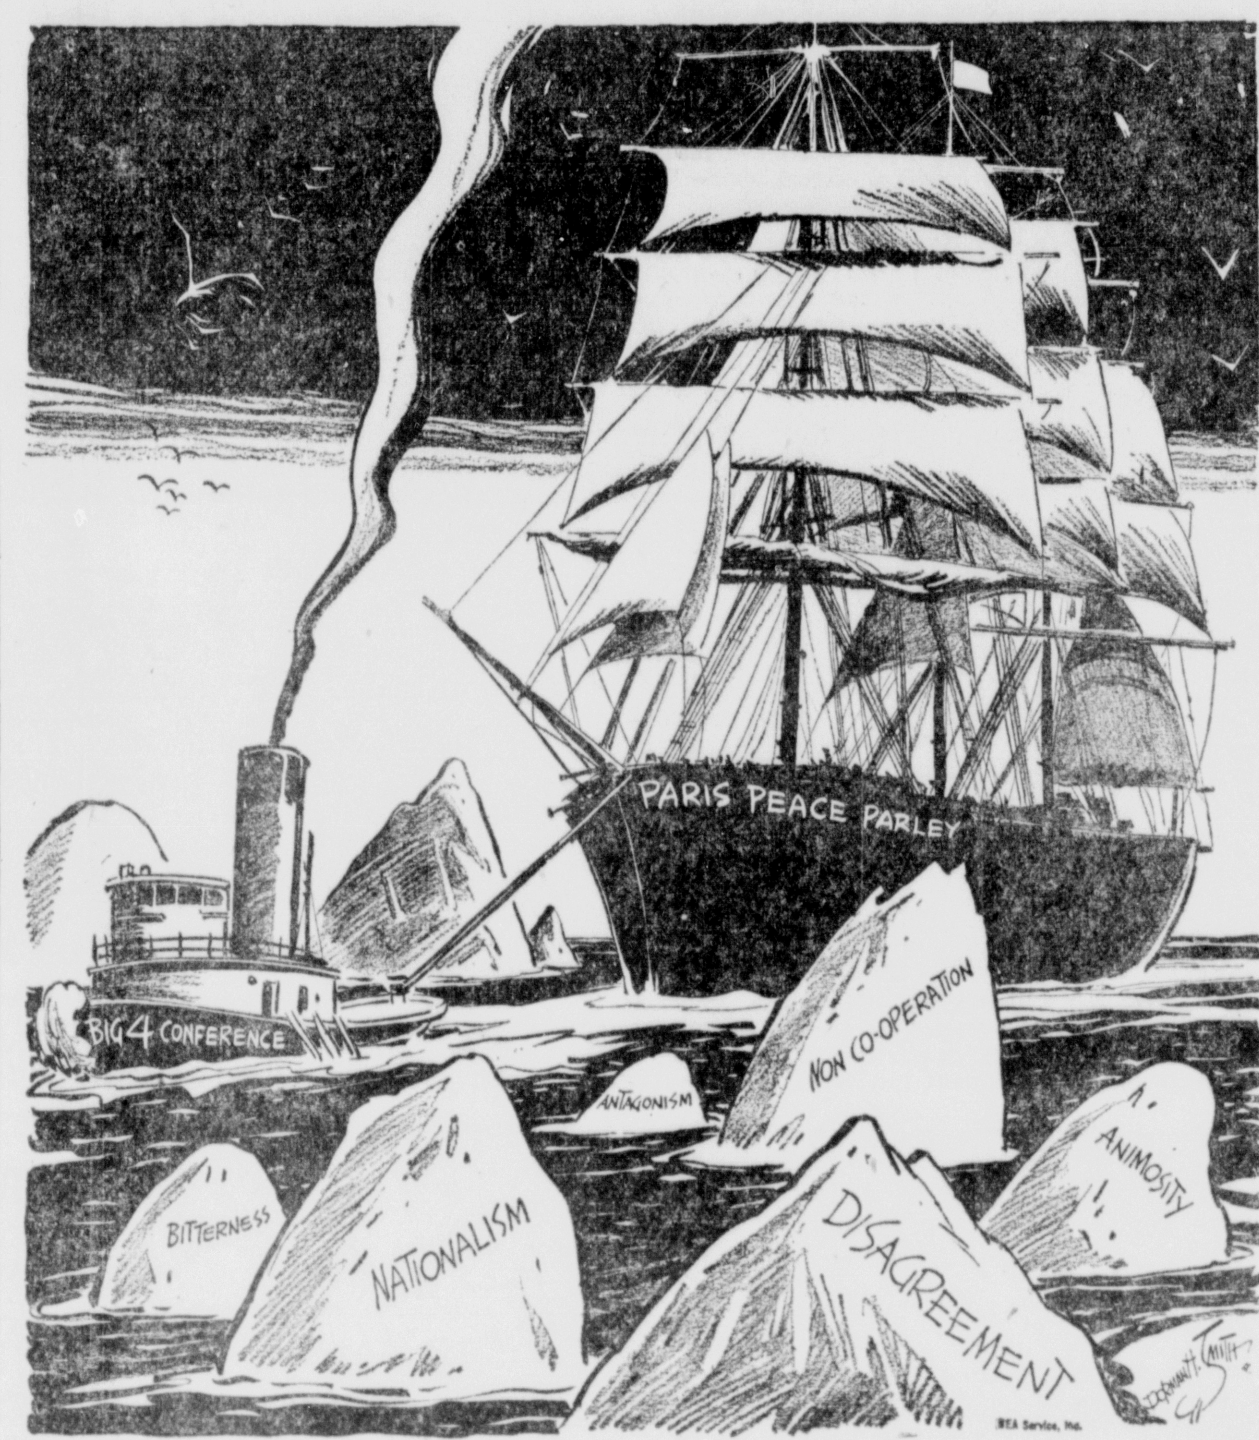

The answer to the question whether a new and hopeful state in Big Four relations at the Peace Conference has been ushered in by the latest meeting of the Council thus depends on whether, within the conference or outside, the Big Four can finally adjust differences on the unsettled problems of the peace, differences which have so far proved impossible of adjustment. We can only wait and see. The flareup over Greece at the conference the day after the Big Four met is not a hopeful sign.

In speaking of the height of persons, use these correct forms:

- He is six feet tall.
- Her height is five feet and two inches.
- He is six feet two.

In the expression, "He is a six-footer," the noun "six-footer" follows the familiar pattern as in six-shooter, forty-niner, two-decker, quarter-miler, third-grader, second-grader, second-rater, three-bagger, etc.

SUPERSTITION—In New York City on Friday, Sept. 13, the National Committee of 13 against superstition and fear will for 13 hours defy fate and superstition by doing many of the things which are supposed to bring bad luck. They will break mirrors, walk under ladders, let black cats cross in front of them, and will light their cigarettes three on a match. Not only that, but they will invite others to throw away their good luck charms and amulets and join those who are flouting superstitious beliefs, both old and new.

The National Committee of 13 was organized to disprove superstition, combat fear, and to record the origin of omens. It was founded by Nick Matsoukas, now executive secretary, whose name has 13 letters, who was born June 13, the 13th son in a family of 13 children, and when he migrated to America first set eyes on the Statue of Liberty on Feb. 13.

GROWING UP—Whether you are superstitious or not seems to be the difference between childishness and maturity.

The most superstitious peoples in the world are those who have made the least progress in science. Fetishism, with doctoring, omens, portents, charms and amulets—all these indicate the dawning of thought on subjects not understood. Science, ripping aside the veil of ignorance, is not only exposing naked truth, but is ending many superstitious and sometimes charming illusions.

Children the world over have their own little tricks of magic. It is only when these taboos, mumbo-jumbos, and charms are carried over into adulthood do they become deeply-believed superstitions—and the object of a debunking attack by the Committee of 13.

REMEMBER WHEN—Unless too far removed from their childhood, most people can remember some of the superstitions they practiced when they were young.

In our day (even superstitions may have changed since then) kids for hours at a time would avoid stepping on the cracks in the sidewalk—"Step on a crack, break your mother's back" the rhyme went. To gain good luck we would walk seven rails on the railroad track and make a wish. If you had to step off the rail, of course, the wish would not come true.

Three white horses in a field would bring a good luck wish, as would a wish made "on a load of hay." We believed that warts were caused by handling toads, and that if you wanted to rid yourself of the warts you rubbed the wart (or warts) with a stone, and then threw it over your shoulder so that you could not see where it fell. We also believed that dragon flies (sewing needles) would sew up our mouths, and we would brush at them frantically if they came near our faces.

THIS 13 BUSINESS—One of the world's most popular superstitions is that the number "13" is unlucky, yet no evidence has ever been presented that this is so. The number 13 is avoided in catering to the superstitious, and few hotels have rooms they number 13, few hostesses will risk having 13 guests for dinner, and 13 steps on a stairway—well, that certainly would bring tragedy in the belief

Q. May a veteran called in the service under the Selective Service Act and discharged before December 7, 1941, receive a course of education or training under the Serviceman's Re-adjustment Act of 1944?

A. Yes, any person who served in the active military or naval service on or after September 16, 1940 and prior to the termination of the present war, is entitled, provided he meets other requirements, to a course of education and training.

Q. Is it true that the Government will permit a veteran to pay his 20-pay National Service Life Insurance premiums years in advance at a discount?

A. Yes, premiums may be paid in advance and 3 per cent discount will be allowed. If death should occur prior to the due date of any premiums paid in advance, and not yet due, such premium of premiums will be returned less unearned discount to the beneficiary. Applications for paying premiums in this manner should be referred by letter to the nearest Veterans Administration Office.

Q. Name four (4) of the largest CIO unions in the United States.

A. United Automobile, Aircraft and Agricultural Implement Workers of America; Steel Workers Organizing Committee; Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America; United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America are among the largest.

Q. Please suggest a way to use left over roast loin of pork. My family is small, and we have difficulty in using up even a small roast.

A. Dice the pork and add it to a gravy made by frying a medium-sized, sliced onion in butter until brown; add a tablespoon of flour and a cup of chicken soup or plain soup stock. Serve with cooked wild rice. Diced baked loin of pork may also be served in cream sauce with slices of hard cooked eggs. Chopped green peppers may be added for variety.

Q. Did George Washington or Thomas Jefferson decline nomination for a third term as President to set a precedent?

A. Judging from his own statement Jefferson gave the credit to Washington, for, in a letter to John Tyler in 1805, he wrote: "George Washington set the example of voluntary retirement after eight years. I shall follow it, and a few more precedents will oppose the obstacle of habit to anyone who shall endeavor to extend his term."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

(Ed. Note—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, his column will be written by several distinguished guest columnists—Today's by Stuart Symington, Assistant Secretary of War for air, who has just returned from a trip around the world).

BY STUART SYMINGTON

Washington—A trip around the world today is a journey of sadness, not only because one thereby has the opportunity to view what strategic bombing has done to the homes and industrial heart of so many countries, but also because, as the trip proceeds, one is more and more aware of the mounting tension between great nations.

There are many memories: The sinister beauty of the bomb explosion in Bikini Atoll, and the later tour over those twisted wrecks that once were proud ships; the piety and sincerity in the face of his holiness Pope Pius XI as he spoke so earnestly of his hopes for peace and a better world; Justice Jackson remarking at Nuremberg: "Those 21 men before you, in conjunction with Hitler and Himmler, not only planned, but by their own estimate, actually carried out the extermination of over six million people."

More than any vivid memory, however, is our conviction that the latest developments of science, atomic energy, the airplane of today, the space ship of tomorrow, have made any man-made walls of isolationism forever futile.

What a waste of human effort as well as human thought those walls have been! It is estimated the great wall of China took hundreds of thousands of people over 1,700 years to build. But all through China and other countries, we saw countless smaller walls, built, it would seem, to keep out any possibility of what mutual understanding which goes with human relationship.

One afternoon we were swimming from a boat on Lake Geneva, in Switzerland, close to the home of the failure that was the League of Nations. The Alps were very beautiful in the summer haze. We thought of how much their protection had meant to the Swiss in their ability to isolate themselves from two world wars.

—ISOLATION GONE—

Suddenly two fighter planes shot out from the mountains, and shortly thereafter a great bomber droned its way high overhead. The cloud at Bikini again flashed before us. We thought, "Isolation for these people has gone forever; from here out, all the peoples of the world are in this business together."

In Shanghai, as we moved from the poverty and dirt of the streets through the sentry entrance of the beautiful house of our American host, the latter observed, "Shanghai is a fine town—behind the walls."

And a few days later, as we rode through the streets to the consul's house in Calcutta, through the sickness and the poverty and the filth, our vice consul remarked, "Calcutta is a grand city—behind the walls."

How much farther we would be in our pursuit of world peace and happiness if all the effort utilized in building such structures of clay and stone had been put to breaking down those walls of misunderstanding between peoples which harbor the seeds of future strife!

How much more happiness and security have flown through the homelands to the people from the wall of the Bonneville dam alone than ever came from all those walls in Asia!

Foreign nations are not the only places where there are barriers to understanding, however. Right here in this country we are developing major walls of disagreement; faction against faction, labor against capital, racial and religious bigotry.

Most of the 17,000,000 veterans in our land today are young men and women who have actually seen these sad conditions in other countries. They know now how much America means to those who believe in the rights of the individual, the right to live one's life in one's own way, and to differ with the rule of the majority.

So they came back cherishing their country more than ever, eager to orient themselves into civilian society, to live under the rules they fought to maintain, to have a job at good wages, a home, a position in the community they left.

—PRAISES TRUMAN—

Nearly thirty years ago a soldier was honorably discharged from the army. He went back to his home state of Missouri, seeking a job and a place in his community. Despite many hardships, he toiled on to success in the American tradition.

Today this veteran is the head of our government; and is aware, through his own experiences, of the problems that confront these millions of returning Americans. No problem in government is closer to his heart.

Let us all join with him to work out their future through a continuance of that philosophy of understanding and tolerance between peoples that has made the United States not only the working symbol of democratic government, but also the greatest nation in the history of the world.

An Ohio woman reported that one of the "turkeys" she's raising nipped a $400 diamond from her ring. Come Thanksgiving, we'll take the gizzard!

Only a few more weeks left for the good husband to send his wife away for his vacation.

RUSTIC FENCE PLANT PLANNED

Menominee May Also Get Plastics Making Factory

Menominee's advantages for industry were given an outsider's endorsement Wednesday night when Paul Lindberg of Chicago told a Menominee Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting in Hotel Menominee that this city's healthy labor situation, its splendid transportation facilities and its nearness to raw materials for wood products had been the chief factors in his decision to locate a rustic fence plant here.

Lindberg, who is also president of the Moldall Plastic company of Chicago, was the principal speaker at this first of a series of Chamber membership meetings planned for the ensuing months, attended by about 50 C. of C. members and their guests. He indicated that once his fence plant is in full operation he would start plans to move his plastic company to Menominee, stating that such transfer would be contingent upon his getting adequate factory space and homes for "key" employees he would need here.

The fence plant will manufacture two types of fences, Lindberg said, the conventional and the picket fence types. He expressed pleasure at Menominee's proximity to forest products which he needs in his manufacturing enterprise and predicted that the nation's home-building program would give his company an unlimited market. Lindberg's brother-in-law, C. E. Olsen, formerly with the American Fence company of Escanaba, is now setting up a sales organization and taking orders for future delivery.

Lindberg discussed in some detail the plastic industry in which his other company is engaged and said plastics would soon be one of the nation's most important industries. He said his Chicago plant has 16 plastic machines in operation at present and five more are being built. The company manufactures plastic novelties.

War Veteran Dies In Auto Collision

Iron Mountain—Douglas Reid, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Reid, Fairborn, and a veteran of World War II, was instantly killed at about 8 yesterday morning, when a sedan which he was driving sideswiped a heavy truck on a sharp right-angled curve on county highway "A," about two and a half miles southwest of Fairborn. William Lagrave, 35, Fairborn, was the driver of the truck, heading south when he met Reid going north.

A rack on the side of the truck went through the windshield of Reid's car, striking him in the neck and chest. Examination revealed that his neck was broken and his chest crushed.

Taking Picture Of Big Brown Bear Is Exciting Job — Rich

BY PHIL RICH

Juneau, Alaska—There's more thrill to photographing a big brown bear at 50 feet than there ever was to trying to shoot one. You work feverishly checking light, camera openings, footage, speed, etc., and just when he dives for a fish or lopes out in front of you, the film may run out.

You must be quiet and just when you think you are all set, the bears move and you reset the tripod and recheck everything again. We lugged three cameras to Pack creek—the big Bolex, tripod, the Bantam and Argus. All but the Bantam are loaded with color film. I operated the movie and carried it mounted on the tripod. Dean Williams, the guide, worked with the Argus and Reardon the Bantam. As we first arrived there was a bear fishing in the stream, perhaps 150 yards away—too far for still photography without a telephoto. By using the Bolex with a six inch lens I could bring the bear up in good shape. The poles in this cliff top were wet, the bark was loose and slippery and Reardon and Dean did a major job in steadying the camera as any "shake" would spoil the picture.

Brownie 30 Feet Away
We had only been cranking away a minute or two when a big brownie silently slipped out of the bushes right below us. He was then likely within 30 feet. This was a thrill. This took a reset for the cameras as this was a shady spot and we hurriedly "guessed" the time as we couldn't pause for a meter reading. In the meantime the bear moved slowly and cautiously. He had not winded us. The movie camera grinds away and you fear he can hear you as he stops, sniffs the air... apparently his eyesight is not good enough to see or he is not looking directly at you. Of course if this happens to be a mother or "sow" bear and cubs are around she may decide to charge. Dean has the 30-06 "strapped" on his shoulder, loaded and ready.

A Three-Man Job
Reardon digs out another film hurriedly and has it out on my coat. It is really a three-man job. The bear gets nervous and in a minute or two is gone. You crank to rewind the Bolex gives a hand while you look at the footage register.

"Now we have time to load," you think. You slip the side of the camera off, take out the film. Reardon puts it in a tin box, hands you another. In the meantime another bear comes out—but you have no time to look. You cut the end off the film with the little trembling fingers slip it into the guides which are supposed to carry it through the mechanism automatically.

The film runs and jams! You open the "gates" and find you did not cut the film too well. You start over and finally the film comes through and you thread the spool and click it in place—hoping all the while that the other bear did not hear you.

Then you run the "leader" through to see that it works, replace the side and run some more leader. You are ready. Gosh, it seems like an hour—"Where's that bear now?" He got a fish and retired to eat it. You must wait! Up at the "Crow's nest" we were up in a tree where the Forest service had built a platform with a railing. That old hemlock stub was about two feet thick, 30 feet up, where we worked. But in spite of that there was "sway" every time a man moved and we all had to move to get "into position." When we did, I had to wait for the sway to stop before using the big telephoto. We kept our supplies in a zipper bag and hauled them out when needed.

We have been using "double X" in the black and white film on dull days and there are lots of them. We only average one good photographic day a week.

You Try and Hope
The Bolex has a 1.9 normal lens, a 2½ inch telephoto with a 2.7 and a 6 inch with a 4.5. On rainy days you have to use the maximum opening on the 2½ inch and the 4.5 is not fast enough but you can slow up the take to eight frames, so you try that and "hope" you get something.

Trevor Davis loaned me some 600 feet of colored movie film on a replacement basis. The express office finally got our trunk but you cannot get it out on Saturdays—they close at noon. Rod Darnell sold me 400 feet more—this latter is Ansco, which they seem to have here in better supply than Eastman. Davis tells me he's having a heck of a time to get film. He finally got some from some soldiers who had bought it at the PX... and Davis is a dealer.

They do have some 35 mm. in daylight Kodachrome and for the Bantam in 828.

They Couldn't Run
The "no-see-ums" gave us one good attack while we were in the "crow's nest." There were a few mosquitoes—not many. But Dean brought along some army stuff he'd brought home. It worked.

Dean is the son of a famous Alaska guide. He spent a lot of time in the army, two years of it in the Aleutians. He's been around this country a lot and is most accommodating... in fact he's sort of taken us in tow. He has a car and freely takes us here and there. To get us around on time and helps us lug our stuff, get our trunk, buy our groceries, see this one and that for information. He's saved us many a long hour. He has his own Argus camera, loaded with color.

BUTTER CAN BE MADE RAPIDLY

New Process Does Away With Conventional Churning

Washington (SS) — Butter can be made more rapidly, at lower labor costs, and in cleaner and more sanitary fashion by a new process that does away with conventional churning, claims Arthur W. Farrall of Wilmette, Ill., on behalf of his system of manufacture, on which U. S. patent 2,406,819 has just been issued here.

Butter fat in milk or cream consists of separate globules, held apart from their neighbors by their surrounding films of a watery solution of protein. Churning is simply a mechanical means for breaking these separating films and literally hammering the bits of butter fat together into a mass, Mr. Farrall explains. His process undertakes to achieve the same end without the hammering.

In his highly mechanized set-up, the cream is first heated above the melting-point of butter fat. While still hot, it is run through a centrifugal separator which turns it out with a fat content as high as 75% to 80%.

The hot cream is then put through a machine called an emulsion breaker, where it is forced through jet nozzles under high pressure. This breaks the separating watery films and lets the bits of butter fat coalesce into a continuous mass in which the watery whey is dispersed in drops. That is, it is now butter.

Further "working," to reduce the amount of whey, is carried out mechanically. Also, by either vacuum evaporation or centrifuging, the watery content may be reduced practically to zero, producing concentrated butter oil, which is more suitable for long storage or far shipment.

From beginning to end, the materials are entirely enclosed, so that neither human hands nor outside air can introduce dirt or spoilage microorganisms.

Planning Pleasures Is In Itself One Of Our Greatest Pleasures!

Suddenly it's fall... time to think of all the simple pleasures that this season brings. Soon crisp days, cool nights, firelight... camp life... the relaxation that pleasant tiredness brings.

One of the simple pleasures of life that many of us look forward to is good beer... both a pleasure and a privilege of a workingman.

Here, good beer has come to mean extra pale Menominee Silver Cream. Try it and you'll agree that it is one of the finest beers you have ever tasted.

his job for slightly over a month, Andrews is already envisioning the construction of a new library in Tacoma. Specifically, he would like to see a larger, functional type of structure "near the center of town".

Andrews is the son of William O. Andrews, of Escanaba, and is a brother of Stuart John Andrews, also of this city.

FORGED STAMPS HAVE FLOODED THE AREA

These stamps taken in by Food Stores are deposited in banks and finally shipped to Cleveland O.P.A. offices where with special equipment the forgery is DETECTED - - then stamps charged back to the merchant, who has no means of discovery.

He soon will not have any sugar to sell.

To stop this—Carpenter Cook Co. will not deliver a bag of sugar to any merchant unless he gives us his check (not stamps)—We will accept no more stamps.

The Grocer must insist that you—the Consumer—bring in your ration book and he must tear out the stamps himself.

I've Figured It Out ...
We Use Electricity
More Than A Hundred Times A Day !

Yes, we take advantage of electricity more than a hundred times a day in our home, and we are just an average household. I kept track of it during a 24 hour period recently, and the results certainly surprised me. Every time we flicked a switch, plugged in an appliance, or an automatic appliance switched on, I marked it down. The total was over one hundred.

That made me realize how indispensable electricity is in our lives. It made me more appreciative of this modern miracle.

The low cost is most amazing. Think of it! Only about ten cents a day for all this service. Believe me, we're really going to take advantage of electricity from now on!

Shelter Bay Trollers Threaten Commercial Fishermen Of Munising

Munising—A. R. Adair, local commercial fisherman, living at 924 W. Superior street, received a threatening note from Shelter Bay trollers warning him to pull up his fish nets from the Shelter Bay reef and was warned that if he did not do so, the nets will disappear. The note, written on a postcard and sent through the United States mails, is on file in the prosecuting attorney's office.

Trouble has been brewing for some time between the Shelter Bay trollers and local commercial fishermen with the first show of outward violence when trolling fishermen rammed a commercial fisherman's boat some weeks ago. Because the note was sent through the mails, it becomes a violation of postal regulations and has been sent to the postal inspector for further investigation.

The card was postmarked Munising, August 26, 1 p. m. 1946, Michigan and was addressed to A. R. Adair, 924 W. Superior street, Munising, Michigan.

On the reverse side was the following note:

Dear Sir: Will you please pull your net out of Shelter Bay reef, as this is right on our trolling grounds. If not, the net will disappear from there.

(signed) The Shelter Bay Fishermen. Although the card was signed "The Shelter Bay Fishermen," prosecuting attorney R. E. O'Brien said it may be only one person who sent the note signing it thus to avoid recognition.

No one party or parties can control Lake Waters the prosecutor said. The waters belong to the public and it is alright for anyone to use them as long as they obey the law.

Investigation has proved that the nets are set out at a reason-

YOUNG GOP'S ARE ORGANIZED

Elect Two Officers For Temporary Assignment, Meeting Thursday

Munising—George Dougherty was elected temporary president of the Alger county Young Republican club and Donlin Liephart was chosen temporary secretary of the club at their organizational meeting held at the Legion club on Thursday evening.

These two officers, the only ones to be elected temporarily, will serve until a permanent full slate of officers is elected at the next meeting to be held on Thursday, September 12. Walter Corey, Alger county Republican committee chairman, opened the meeting and turned it over to the new officers after their election.

James Jernstad, the upper peninsula representative of the Michigan State Republican committee, attended the meeting on Thursday evening and discussed with the members present how other young Republican clubs are being organized and gave the local club every assurance of success. He also stressed registration and said the voters absolutely won't be eligible to vote unless they are on the permanent registration cards.

Mr. Jernstad also said that the Republican party is depending on the outstate vote this year to offset the Wayne county heavy Democratic vote.

The club's charter was mailed into headquarters Friday morning and the next meeting on Thursday will be the first official meeting of the new club.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock and will be held at the Legion club, secretary Liephart said.

FIRE CALL
Munising—The Fire Department was called on Friday morning to extinguish a blaze that started at Leo St. Martins, in Island View Addition, when a wood burning machine motor was knocked over and set to chips and gasoline that were scattered on the ground. A little damage was done to the motor.

W. S. C. S. MEETS
Munising—The next meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service will be held Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, September 11, at the home of Mrs. Elson Carberry Sr., Island View Addition.

CHICAGO PRICES
CHICAGO BUTTER
Chicago, Sept. 6 (AP)—(USDA)—Butter, 1 lb. 24¢, 1/2 lb. 12¢, 1/4 lb. 6¢, 1/8 lb. 3¢, 1/16 lb. 1¢, 1/32 lb. 1/2¢.

CHICAGO EGGS
Chicago, Sept. 6 (AP)—(USDA)—Eggs, firm; market unchanged.

CHICAGO GRAIN
Chicago, Sept. 6 (AP)—The grain futures market today was on a small scale and with the exception of corn, no major trend developed. Corn deliveries showed minor strength, closing gains of 1/4 cent.

There was little news to influence grain prices while the market was in session, although after the close it was announced that the Community Credit Corporation would start buying its export wheat at market prices, rather than at the old ceiling, starting next week.

Wheat finished 5-8 lower to 1/2 higher, January $1.50 1/2, corn was 1/4 higher, January $1.32 7/8, and oats were 1-5 lower to 3-4 higher, September 70-8 to 70 1/2. March barley sold at $1.20 1/2, up 1/2.

Cash wheat and corn prices were steady, but oats declined fractionally. Dealers reported they purchased 60,000 bushels of oats on a to-arrive basis. Increased offerings of the cash grain tended to restrain buying enthusiasm in oats futures.

Temperatures in the corn belt were higher. A report to the local grain house from various mid-western localities emphasized the need of warm weather for the next three or four weeks to mature the corn crop.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK
Chicago, Sept. 6 (AP)—The new good grade beef cows on today's market sold at $14.25 to $15.50, while medium and common grades were $9.00 to $12.50. A package of medium grass heifers brought $16.25, far under the ceiling price of $20.25 for grainfed animals.

Otherwise, there was little of importance offered in the run and nothing of choice or prime grade. The top of good weighty bulls remained at $13.50, and good and choice vealers went at $15.00 to $16.00.

Stocker cattle cleared broadly at prices mostly 25 to 50 cents higher, with medium to choice yearlings and light feeding steers taking $14.50 to $17.25.

Hogs remained at the ceiling of $16.25 for good and choice kinds, and shippers took none of the scarce available receipts.

Slaughter spring lambs were mostly steady at $20.00 to $20.25 for good and choice native springers, which was a quarter higher at the top. Shorn slaughter ewes rose a quarter to $9.00 for good and choice quality.

Receipts were 300 cattle, 200 calves, 1,000 sheep, and 800 hogs.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE
New York, Sept. 6 (AP)—Closing foreign exchange rates follow (Great Britain in dollars, others in cents): Canadian dollar in New York open market 3-3 3/4 per cent discount, on 96.62 1/2 U. S. cents, down 25 of a cent.

Europe: Great Britain $4.03 1/2, unchanged; France (franc) 81 1/4, unchanged; Sweden (krona) 27.86, unchanged; Switzerland (franc) (com'l) 23.40, unchanged.

Latin America: Argentina free 24.75, up .01 of a cent; Brazil free 5.50, unchanged; Mexico 20.65, unchanged.

TRADING TRENDS
New York, Sept. 6 (AP)—Stocks: Lower; leaders resume decline in quiet dealings. Bonds: Lower; rails slip. Cotton: Higher; mill buying. Chicago: Wheat: Steady; trade light. Corn: Firm; short-covering. Oats: Steady at ceilings; top $16.25. Cattle: Steady to strong; slaughter top $16.25.

GRANDSTAND IS BEING REPAIRED

Will Be Finished In Time For Opening Home Game, Sept. 28

Repairs to and strengthening of the grandstand at Marble Athletic Field will be made within the next two weeks, it has been announced by Supt. Wallace Cameron of the Gladstone public schools.

A portion of the grandstand collapsed near the close of the Escanaba-Gladstone game two years ago and material and labor could not be procured last summer to repair the stand.

Use of the stand was limited to the sound portion last fall because of this.

However, material has been procured and a crew supervised by William Gamache will do the work.

Sunday School At Lutheran Church Is Being Resumed

Following a three-weeks layoff, Sunday school classes will be resumed at the First Lutheran church this Sunday at 10 o'clock. New material has been added and there will be a reorganization of the kindergarten department. Promotion of students will mark the opening session and pupils having text or books should bring them for exchange. Children not attending another church school at present are welcome to attend.

Mrs. John Lash, superintendent states.

A special training course for teachers was held last Wednesday evening at the church under the supervision of Miss Birdine Peterson, of the board of parish education of Augustana Synod.

REV. F. YOUNG TO LEAVE CITY

Accepts Pastorate Of Illinois Church October 13

The Rev. J. Fred Young, pastor of Bethel Free church of this city, is resigning his pastorate here to accept charge of a church in Illinois, it was learned yesterday.

Rev. Young will go to Crystal Lake, Ill., a town about 40 miles distant from Chicago.

Coming to Gladstone four years ago in August, Rev. Young assumed charge of Bethel church, and under his active direction the church has prospered. During the past three months he served as superintendent of the Great Lakes District of the Free church and as such visited the affiliated churches in the district.

He returned to Gladstone Sept. 1. Rev. Young and his family will leave for Crystal Lake about the middle of October and he will take charge of the pastorate there on the second Sunday of the month, October 13.

LEGIONNAIRES TO EAT CORN

Frank Barron Invites Local Post To Farm Monday Night

Members of August Mattson Post, American Legion, have been invited to a corn feed at the old Ford Farm on the Escanaba River by Frank Barron, who recently purchased the property.

All members of the Legion are invited to the supper which will begin about 6 o'clock. Legionnaires needing a ride or having room for others in their auto should be at the Legion hall on North Ninth street about 5:45.

No meeting of the post was held the first Monday of the month, because of Labor Day. A meeting will be held at the hall on Monday, Sept. 16, however.

Up When Loaded Ship
Touches Bottom

The carrier, Robert J. Paisley, of the Paisley Steamship Company, Cleveland, Ohio, is aground in the local harbor, the bow being firmly set in the shallow part of the harbor about forty feet from shore and the stern out over the main channel.

The boat, heavily loaded with coal arrived about ten o'clock Friday morning and was maneuvering for position alongside of the Gerwin coal dock when the bow became imbedded in the harbor bottom and could not be manipulated further.

The predicament of the ship is shared also by the Ann Arbor steamship line as the Paisley is crosswise against the channel and that makes it impossible for the ferry boats to maneuver to their docks.

The situation is not regarded as seriously as the Coast Guard boat, the Thomas J. Mead, is in the harbor and will render assistance if called upon. It is expected that the freighter will unload some of its coal and thus lift itself off of the harbor bottom.

Several years ago a heavily loaded ship struck a submerged anchor and sprung a bad leak. Nothing like this has happened this time, a member of the crew said.

School Library

Reading lists of the English department of the Manistique junior and senior high schools are being extensively revised in the classics and fiction groups. During the war years replacements were often impossible to obtain but now all sadly worn books have been discarded and many new ones have been added. The booklet "Books For You," a high school reading list put out by the National Council of English Teachers has been used as a guide in the addition of new books coming either direct from the publishers or from the regular library stacks. As books wear out in the future, their replacement by actual titles will depend upon whether or not they are included in this booklet or its later editions. Its stated aim is to help students see that reading for enjoyment is not only a school duty but that reading of literature can be one of the greatest pleasures in living.

With the thought that parents, friends and students will be interested in this step toward popularizing reading lists, the Manistique library publishes Group I and Group II of its revised lists for seniors. Other revisions will follow as soon as practical.

Group I (Classics)—Adam Bede, Eliot. Black Dwarf, Scott. Boat of Longing, Rolvaag. Bride of Lammormore, Scott. Buried Alive, Bennett. Captain Blake, King. Children of God, Fisher. Far From the Madding Crowd, Hardy.

Mildred L. Minor,
John C. Kluk Are
Wed In Chicago

Chicago—At a lovely double ceremony on August 24, Miss Mildred Minor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Minor of Cooks, became the bride of John Chester Kluk, son of Mrs. Julia Kluk of Chicago. The couple repeated their vows before the Rev. Fr. Walter Baron at Saint Mary of the Angels church in Chicago.

Red roses bordered the altar, and chrysanthemums and white asters with a repetition of red roses decorated the church. White and red roses formed six arches over the white aisle rug which led to the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace with finger-tip sleeves. The bodice was buttoned down the back, and the skirt extended in a long train. Her long lace veil was held in place by a rhinestone crown, and she wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. Gardenias, white roses, and asters formed her bridal bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Miss Helen Nowrook and Miss Irene Muleronek. Miss Nowrook wore a gown of aqua chiffon, and Miss Muleronek wore white chiffon. Their bouquets were of red and white roses and asters, and they wore flowers in their hair.

Walter Sider and Walter Kalembo of Chicago attended the bridegroom. The men in the bridal party wore tuxedos.

Reception Held
Following the ceremony, breakfast was served to 55 guests at the Terminal Restaurant in Logan Square. In the evening, a reception was held at the bridegroom's home, with 48 guests attending.

Mrs. Minor, the bride's mother, appeared in a gold suit trimmed in black, with white accessories. Mrs. Kluk chose a black crepe dress with white accents, and white accessories. Red and white roses and asters formed their shoulder corsages.

The couple left later for a wedding trip through Wisconsin, Lower Michigan, and Indiana, the bride wearing a three-piece gray and white pin stripe suit, white accessories, and squirrel furs.

Mr. and Mrs. Kluk are making their home in Chicago, where the bridegroom is employed as chief inspector at the Terrier Foundry company. A graduate of St. Mary of the Angels school, class of 1942, he recently received his discharge from the navy after three and one-half years service.

The bride, who was graduated from Cooks high school in 1942, has been employed in Chicago by the Stewart Warner corporation.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Russell Minor of Cooks; Mrs. John Frajale of Thompson, grandmother of the bride; Dr. Frank Valach of Berwyn, Ill.

Legion Club Has Been Redecorated

Redecoration of the Legion club is now completed and the Legion headquarters which has been in a somewhat disorganized state since the recent convention, is now back to normal.

The public games, which have not been held while changes were being made, will be resumed tonight to help raise funds for the Legion Drum and Bugle Corps.

AUG. JOHNSON
IS SUMMONED

Had Resided In City
More Than Half A Century

August Johnson, 86, 129 South Third street, died Thursday afternoon following a several months' illness.

Mr. Johnson was born in Ohland, Sweden, on September 26, 1859. He was married in Sweden on December 31, 1884, to Sophia Swanson, and six years later they came to America, settling in Manistique, where he found employment with the Chicago Lumber company. Twelve years ago they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Surviving Mr. Johnson are a daughter, Mrs. Gunnar Muhir, Manistique; two sons, John A. and Carl W. Johnson, Minneapolis; a sister, Mrs. Karin Johnson, in Sweden, five grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Mrs. Johnson died in 1943.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Morton funeral home. The Rev. G. A. Herbert will conduct the services and burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

Doclored Sugar

Ration Stamps
Are Passed Here

Local merchants have issued a warning that they are now on the alert for a clever scheme of counterfeiting of sugar ration stamps and that it will be very hard from now on to use this means of getting a few extra pounds of sugar.

The deception has been perpetrated by pasting current numbers (where these numbers came from is not learned) over numbers on stamps that are no longer useable. Being of light paper, the added thickness of the stamps, was not noticed by the unsuspecting merchant.

Inasmuch as the merchant thus imposed upon has to make good for all sugar sales he is unable to account for, he is not going to get deceived very often.

Counterfeiting stamps this way is regarded by the government as counterfeiting and people caught doing anything of the sort are apt to get into serious trouble.

Ishpeming Plays At Manistique In Football Opener Today

NEW COACHES MAKING DEBUT

Hematites To Have Big Following Of Fans At Hall Stadium

Manistique—The high school football season will open in Manistique Saturday as the Manistique Emeralds clash with Ishpeming at the A. F. Hall stadium. The kickoff is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock.

Two new Upper Peninsula coaches will make their bow to local football fans Saturday. They are Jerry Thompson, Manistique grid mentor, and Al Thomas, of Ishpeming. Both coaches have been drilling their squads intensively for the past three weeks in preparation for the opener.

From Ishpeming comes a report that one of the largest delegations of fans ever to accompany an Ishpeming football team out of town will travel with the Hematites to Manistique Saturday.

The probable starting lineup for the Emeralds follows: Rydquist, left end; Peterson, left tackle; Dyquette or Strasser, left guard; Jackson, center; Dewey or Frankovich, right guard; Roddy, right tackle; Van Mueller, right end; Daugherty, quarterback; Schuster, left half; Parsley, Anderson or LaMourie, right half; Shaw, fullback.

The battle shapes up as a toss-up, with the two teams built around equal numbers of lettermen from previous seasons.

Officials will be Gunderman, Baldwin and Bartels of Escanaba.

Feller-Newhouser Mound Duel To Be Baseball Natural

Detroit, Sept. 6 (P)—Virtually everyone concerned had revived the subject today of a mound duel between Bob Feller of Cleveland and Hal Newhouser of Detroit before the baseball season ends.

Feller and Newhouser have faced each other four times in the past, and the Detroit lefthander has yet to gain a decision over the Cleveland fire-baller.

Cleveland's Bill Veck is hard at it trying to match the two hurling aces the next time the Tigers visit the Ohio city. If they meet there, Detroit officials want a rematch.

Here is how some of the principals have expressed themselves: Newhouser: "I've never beaten Feller and I'd sure like another chance. If it can be worked out, the game should be played right here. The Detroit fans deserve it."

Feller: "I don't remember pitching against Newhouser before the war, but I know I beat him last year. If it will draw the crowd, I hope we meet twice this month."

Manager Steve O'Neill of Detroit: "We're shooting for second place. If we have that sewed up, I won't object to a special match. But I prefer to pitch Hal in regular turn."

Manager Lou Boudreau of Cleveland: "We're going to pitch Feller Sept. 22. We thought it was all set for Newhouser to pitch, too."

George M. Trautman, Detroit executive vice president: "If they meet at Cleveland, we certainly want a rematch."

Newhouser recalled that Feller had beaten him twice before the war. After Bob returned from the navy last summer, he beat Hal and the Tigers August 24 on a four-hitter. A week later they faced each other again and both were knocked out and didn't figure in the decision.

Senators Win, 3-2, In Eleventh Inning

Washington, Sept. 6 (P)—Stan Spence drove a double to left scoring Buddy Lewis in the eleventh inning to give Washington a 3-2 win over Boston here tonight before 27,056 fans.

The defeat broke an eight game winning streak for Boston.

Score by innings:
Boston . . . 000 011 000 00—2 10 1
Washington . . . 000 020 000 01—3 12 0

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to all the kind relatives, neighbors and friends who assisted us during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved husband and father, Louis Walker. We are very grateful to Rev. F. Martin Melan for his comforting words and other manifestations of sympathy, to those who served as pallbearers, sent floral and spiritual bouquets, donated the use of their cars and to all others who aided us in so many ways. The memory of these acts of kindness will always remain with us.

Local OVA Helps Over 800 Veterans In Filing Claims

Over 800 Delta county veterans have taken advantage of aid offered by the Office of Veterans' Affairs here in filing claims for unused leave or furlough pay since application blanks became available over a week ago.

It is probable that many more of the 3,000 Delta county ex-servicemen and women have also made application without making use of OVA facilities.

The local Office of Veterans' Affairs will continue to assist any veterans who desire help in filling out the application blanks. Veterans are reminded again that the original or photostatic copy of discharge papers must accompany the claims.

Because of the millions of claims which must be processed at the various disbursement offices, it will probably be some time before any actual payments are made.

Briefly Told

County Clerk Ill—Delta County Clerk J. Theodore Ohlen, who has been in Chicago for several days, is receiving surgical treatment there.

Apply For License—Applications for marriage licenses have been made at the office of the county clerk by Warren L. Nilsen of Escanaba and Ruth Goodreau of Wells; Gordon P. DeMars of Bark River Rt. 2 and Geraldine Racicot of Schaffer.

Spanish War Vets—A meeting of Valentine Camp No. 21, Spanish-American War Veterans, will be held at the Escanaba city hall two o'clock Sunday afternoon, Sept. 8. State Commander Charles H. Fay of Detroit will address the meeting.

Stamp Collectors—The Escanaba Philatelic society will hold a meeting at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon in the editorial rooms of the Escanaba Daily Press. All stamp collectors are invited to attend.

Commandery Practice—A special meeting of Escanaba Commandery 47 will be held at 7:30 tonight for practice. All officers and members of the drill team are requested to be present.

Citizens' Committee To Aid In Organization Of Local National Guard

A Citizens' Committee named here this week will meet next Tuesday evening, Sept. 10, at 8 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce to formulate plans for actively promoting the organization of Co. C, National Guard unit to be set up here.

The meeting is being called by Atty. Robert E. Lemire, commander of Cloverland Post, American Legion, who was appointed recently to head the work of re-activating the local National Guard unit.

The local committee, headed by Mayor Marvin Coon, is made up of a number of prominent citizens, both veterans and non-veterans, among them John Bissell, Carl Nelson, Thomas Quinn, Raymond LaPorte, Juel Lee, James Frenn, Harold P. Lindsay, Clifford Bridges, Allan Earle, Claude Tobin, Jr., Herbert Flath, Carl Dickson, Dr. Roy Johnson, Nevin Reynolds, Elmer Swanson Jr., A. W. Freeman, Hazen Hengesh and Gust Asp.

Men in the community who join Company C will receive a full day's pay (at the new army rates recently established) for about an hour's drill each week and for full time during the two weeks of field training in the summer. Uniforms will be provided without cost.

The local unit will have a complement of 136 officers and men and application blanks may be had now at the Office of Veterans' Affairs.

Glasure Infant Is Claimed By Death

Charles Frederick Glasure, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Glasure, 3 Highland avenue, Wells, died yesterday morning at St. Francis hospital.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glasure, and his maternal grandfather, Charles Wisuri of Iron River.

The body was taken to the Anderson funeral home, where services will be held this afternoon at two o'clock, with the Rev. Gustav Lund of Bethany Lutheran church officiating. Burial will be in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery.

In ancient Greece it was believed that it grew warmer and warmer as you went south, and that if you went far enough you would die from the heat.

A forerunner of the internal combustion engine was a French model which ran by "inflammation of spirit of tar," as benzene was known in 1809.

Public Schools' Enrollment Up 188 Over Last Year's

Enrollment in Escanaba public schools at the close of the first week of classes is 2715, or 188 more than the 1945 total of 2527, John A. Lemmer, superintendent of schools, reported yesterday.

Only single enrollment lighter than last year's is that in the special classes (ungraded rooms, oral deaf, eight saving etc.) There are 56 pupils in those classes, seven less than last year.

Average increase in the seven public schools is 28, largest being at the senior and junior high schools, Barr, Franklin and Jefferson.

Following is the enrollment comparison:

	This year	Last year
Barr	290	255
Franklin	218	187
Jefferson	235	203
Washington	292	239
Webster	322	311
Senior high	708	665
Junior high	593	554
Special	56	63
Total	2715	2527

It has been necessary, due to the increased enrollment, to maintain two half-day kindergarten groups at the Jefferson instead of the single one held in the past. At the Webster a new third grade teacher has been added and the second and third grades combined.

Green Bay Driver Reports Theft Of Six Cowhides Here

A Green Bay Cooperative company truck driver, Guy Barbeau, reported to city police yesterday that six cowhides were stolen from his truck on the night of Aug. 22 when the machine was parked in the rear of the Pearson Boiler works, Stephenson avenue.

The driver, who valued the hides at $56, said he did not know of the theft until he unloaded his truck in Green Bay.

H'VILLE SPORTS PROMOTER DIES

Joseph Rodman, 32, Succumbs To Lengthy Illness

Joseph George Rodman, Jr., 32, active in sports promotion at Hermansville for a number of years, died at 11:45 o'clock Thursday night at St. Francis hospital. He had been in ill health for the past three years.

He was born in Hermansville July 3, 1914 and was a lifelong resident of that community. He was manager of the Hermansville community club for 10 years and at the time of his death was proprietor of the Hiawatha Inn and Dairy Bar at Hermansville.

Mr. Rodman was an avid sports enthusiast and managed a number of basketball and baseball teams in Hermansville. He also sponsored several successful independent basketball tournaments in that community.

He is survived by his widow, the former Lucile LaViolette, of Escanaba; and a son, Joseph III, aged seven months; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rodman, of Hermansville; one brother, Frank, with the U. S. Army in North Luzon, Philippines; seven sisters, Ann, Mary, Katherine, Veronica, Dorothy, and Barbara, of Hermansville; and Frances, of Milwaukee; and an uncle, Peter Rodman, of Los Angeles, Calif.

He was a member of the Croatian Society of Hermansville and the body will lie in state at the Croatian hall in Hermansville beginning Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. G. F. LaMotte will recite the rosary Sunday evening at eight o'clock. Services will be held at the Croatian hall Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. M. H. LaViolette, brother-in-law of Mr. Rodman, will be celebrant of the solemn requiem high mass. Interment will be made in Hermansville cemetery.

Leopold Stokowski has three middle names—Antonio Stanislaw Boleslawowicz.
